Featured Comedian
HENRY CHO

Henry’s TV and film credits include appearances on NBC’s The Tonight Show, CBS’s The Late, Late, Show, and NBC’s Young Comedians Special. He served two years as host of NBC’s Friday Night Videos and had many guest roles on various network sitcoms.

Henry’s one hour Comedy Central Special, What’s That Clickin’ Noise?, is currently running and he can also be heard on SiriusXM’s Blue Collar Radio. He’s also a regular performer at the Grand Ole Opry.

Some of Henry’s film credits include Universal’s McHale’s Navy with Tom Arnold and David Allen Greer; Say It Isn’t So with Heather Graham and Sally Field; and Material Girls with Hilary Duff and Angelica Houston, produced by Madonna.

Henry was the keynote entertainer for The 59th Annual Radio & Television Correspondents’ Dinner attended by the Bush Administration and has worked extensively with Vince Gill, Amy Grant, Willie Nelson, Carrie Underwood, and many others. Henry’s clean comedy is so versatile that he can headline Vegas and then tour with Michael W. Smith in the same month.

Henry recently filmed the Faith-based Indy film “Saving Faith” in 2017 in which he co-starred and also co-produced.

Serving People in Need
A MISSION OF LOVE

“I would like to take a minute to tell you about a way to advertise your company, help the homeless, and be part of one of the most fantastic nights in Hampton Roads. People in Need (PiN) is a non-profit, faith-based ministry that provides job training, medical and dental care, housing, and recovery groups for people who are homeless or extremely poor.

PiN will be returning to the Sandler Center, bigger and better than ever, after three successful years to raise funds — this time, with the help of nationally known comedian Henry Cho. This will be our greatest night yet and we would love for your business to be a part! Please take a minute to consider the tax deductible sponsorship levels.”
